

4th INTERNATIONAL LIVING NORWAY COLLOQUIUM: OPEN BIODIVERSITY DATA FOR A BETTER WORLD

- Bridging the gap between researchers, practitioners and policymakers

PROGRAM

Venue: The session on May 23rd will be held at NTNU in Trondheim, and it will also be possible to remotely stream the seminar. The workshop on May 24th will be held at NINA-huset and is open for in-person attendance only.

Date: May 23rd – 24th.

Day 1, May 23rd: Seminar sessions

Day 1 will consist of a series of invited seminars covering three main topics. The lecturers will be from various sectors, both from Norway and abroad. Speakers will be announced soon!

Speakers will be announced soon.

Time	Activity	Description
	Session 1	Showcasing uses of open biodiversity data
09:45 - 12:00		Speakers to be announced soon.
12:00 - 13:00	Lunch
	Session 2	Emerging opportunities in open biodiversity data use
13:00 - 14:20		Speakers to be announced soon.
14:15 - 14:40	Coffee break
	Session 3	Where to go from here: future directions in open biodiversity data

14:40 - 16:00	Speakers to be announced soon.
------------------	---------------------------------------

Day 2, May 24th: Workshops

Time	Activity	Description
	Workshop Session 1	Accessing and using open biodiversity data on the Global Biodiversity Information Facility
09:00 - 11:00		Details to be announced soon.
11:00 - 12:00	Lunch
	Workshop Session 2	Publishing your data on the Global Biodiversity Information Facility
12:00 - 13:45		Details to be announced soon.
13:45 - 14:15	Coffee break
14:15 - 16:00		Details to be announced soon.

About us: <https://livingnorway.no/>